A Brother Slips Away
Bad Again
If Love Whispers Your Name

'Almost impossible to replicate in the studio, this is the level of energy and conviction which drives the album as a newly buoyant Thompson discovers his second (or more likely his fourth, fifth and sixth) wind. Scintillating.' 4 Stars - Mojo

'In truth, 'Dream Attic' has remarkable 'accuracy', being played by a long-standing who understand each other perfectly, with superb playing on fiddle, reeds, and mandolin to accompany Thompson's guitar.' 4 Stars - Uncut

'Riveting, enlightening, witty, moving, provocative and entertaining - strongly recommended.' Time Out
